Beginning Your Journey
- Connect with your academic advisor
- Accommodations for disability
- Begin your life design plan
- Get to know faculty in your major
- Connect to cultural pride, identity, development, and community
- Investigate Study Abroad options

Owning Your Journey
- Explore internships and experiential learning
- Cultivate your creative community
- Join a student club or organization
- Connect to Denver's urban laboratory!
- Create an academic plan and check your Degree Audit with your advisors

Transitioning into Your Future
- Visit campus resources: LRC, ELC, Writing Center, Counseling Center
- Staying safe on campus: talk to about stress, relationships, and mental health
- Are you working? Do you want to? Check out jobs on campus
- Meet with your advisors to complete a 60-hour check
- How do I stay healthy?
- Explore research and interdisciplinary studies
- Explore supplementary academic programs
- Connect with the CAM Life Design & Career Coach
- Explore independent studies in your major

- Apply for graduation
- See advisors for a grad check the semester before you plan to graduate
- Submit professional or graduate program applications
- Ask your professors if graduate school might be right for you
- Investigate Study Abroad options