UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO DENVER

Message to CAM Faculty & Staff:

The results of the vote to modify CAM's grading policy was 24-3, in favor. The vote is part of a process that included a vote from the Faculty Assembly, daily meetings with the Chancellor's Cabinet + Deans, CU Denver interaction with President Kennedy and the Board of Regents, and directives from the CDHE. Here is what the Provost sent to the students, yesterday, April 2nd, at 2:15 pm: <https://bit.ly/2UDNHNh>

Formulating a modified grading policy received a great deal of attention—as it should. CAM has some fairly stringent rules about P/F. CAM is one of 3 CU Denver colleges/schools that needed to have a faculty vote. While that was being put into place, CU System received notice that the CDHE had regulations about P/F. Grading is in the purview of the faculty (as it should be), so in addition to certain colleges efforts, this went to a Faculty Assembly Vote, that came on the heels of the CAM vote. Jeffrey Schrader and David Bondelevitch are on the Faculty Assembly, and I appreciate their efforts to represent the College of Arts & Media.

Now for some additional good news:

- 1) This is an exceptional page, celebrating the creative work that faculty and students are engaged in. CAM at Home. <https://bit.ly/2UFuH1d>
- 2) Recording Arts faculty member and graduate student Cory Cullinan was featured on Channel 9 and Channel 2 news casts. <https://bit.ly/2wZpZSO>
- 3) Rocky Mountain PBS will feature Emmanuel Gallery's Wayne Brungard Show (from this past year) on the award winning weekly program, Arts District. This is slated for Friday, April 10 at 7:30 pm <http://www.rmpbs.org/schedule/>

Onward!
