Student Employment Handbook

Dear Employers and Students,

The Student Employment Office presents this Student Employment Handbook to assist all the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus Student Employees, Supervisors, Payroll Liaisons, and Off-Campus employers. This handbook is intended to help University affiliated employers manage, dictate, and implement the policies and regulation within the student employment program, and offer guidance to student employees.

This handbook includes information regarding undergraduate and graduate work-study student employees, hourly student employees, and off-campus work-study student employees. In addition, this handbook will address work place issues such as; student retirement, employee termination, equal opportunity, nepotism, sexual harassment, drugs and alcohol, and workers' compensation policies.

For the convenience of our students and employers this handbook is comprised of seven different sections. It is recommended that students read and understand their rights and responsibilities as a student employee before starting employment. It is also recommended that all employers are familiar with this handbook, and include the student portion of this handbook in every new student employee training.

The University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus Student Employment Office, would like to extend a thank you to the Boulder Campus Student Employment Office, for sharing information, policies, and procedures, along with other assistance in the completion of this handbook.

If there are any questions or concerns regarding this handbook, and/or questions regarding information not included in this handbook, please contact the Student Employment Office at: 303.315.1842 or by email at studentemployment@ucdenver.edu.

Sincerely,

Student Employment Office

Student Employment Policy

Work-Study & Student Hourly

Student Employment Eligibility

To be eligible for work-study during the Academic Year and Summer semesters, a student must submit a Free Application for Federal Student Aid \(FAFSA\) and receive a work-study award as part of the students' financial aid package. Priority is given to students who apply and complete all requirements early. The Free Application for Federal Student Aid must be submitted each year and can be done as early as January 1st.

Once awarded, students must maintain their financial aid eligibility throughout a given semester. Students who drop below the credit hour requirement (stated below), or withdraw during a semester, may only earn work-study funding through their last day of attendance. If a student continues to earn work-study funding when they are no longer eligible, the employing department will be charged for 100% of the students' earnings.

Work-Study Students:

Undergraduate work-study students MUST be enrolled for at least 6 credit hours throughout a semester, including summer semesters.

Graduate work-study students MUST be enrolled in at least 3 credit hours throughout a semester, including summer semesters (except in the case of students completing their thesis and/or dissertation credit during a single summer semester).

Professional work-study students MUST be enrolled in at least 5 credit hours throughout a semester, including summer semesters.

Please Note: Work-Study student employees who are graduating may only work up to the last day of classes and/or finals week. Work-Study students who are graduating may not earn work-study funding past the last day of classes. The last day of classes/finals week, may be different from the end date of the pay period.

Important: In the case of a work-study student employee who will be graduating in the summer, the student cannot work past June 30. The student will no longer be eligible for work-study funding after this date.

Hourly Students:

All student employees (undergraduate, graduate and professional) must be enrolled in some credit-earning capacity during the semester in which they are employed. Student hourly employees may work in the summer when not enrolled if: They were enrolled for the previous spring semester, and present proof of fall semester registration, and/or a letter of intent to enroll for the fall semester ("surrounding enrollment").

Please Note: Student Hourly employees who are graduating may work to the end of the semesters pay period, and do NOT need to end their position after the last day of classes and/or finals week.

Displacing regular workers, i.e. State Classified/Professional/faculty employees, by student employees is prohibited under: 34 CFR 675.20.

Background Check:

All student employees must complete the University of Colorado Background Request Form, pursuant to the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus Background Investigations Policy. Students WILL NOT BE HIRED until the Background Check has been completed.

PLEASE NOTE: The University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus background check policy is at times more rigorous than those at other institutions and/or that of other employers.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP):

Federal and State financial aid rules and regulations require students to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP), in order to be eligible to earn their work-study awards. This progress is assessed at the end of each semester as soon as grades are finalized. There are 3 types of violations:

1. Grade Point Average
2. Completion Rate
3. Overall attempted credit hour limit

The Student Employment Office will attempt to notify each employer if a student becomes ineligible to earn their award due to a violation of the SAP standards. Once notified, the student will either have to stop working for your department or will need to be set up as an hourly student and your department will be responsible for paying 100% of their hourly wage.

Students may appeal their SAP status, if a student had extenuating circumstances for being in this position. If a student's financial aid eligibility is reinstated, the Student Employment Office will notify employers as soon as possible, so that students may resume earning their work-study.

Work Hour Regulation

Undergraduate student employees (Work-Study and Student Hourly) are recommended to work 20 hours a week throughout the Fall, Spring and Summer semesters while classes are in session. The maximum number of hours a student employee may work during the fall and spring semester is 25 hours per week or 50 hours per biweekly payroll period, provided no single week in that period exceeds 40 work hours. However, the maximum number of hours a student employee may work during the summer is 40 hours per week.

Graduate and Professional student employees (Work-Study and Student Hourly) are recommended to work 20 hours a week throughout the Fall, Spring and Summer semesters while classes are in session. The maximum number of hours a student employee may work during the fall and spring semester is 25 hours per week or 50 hours per biweekly payroll period, provided no single week in that period exceeds 40 work hours. However, the maximum number of hours a student employee may work during the summer is 40 hours per week.

International Students: In accordance with the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) regulations, international students may not work more than 20 hours per week—in total, regardless of the number of positions—while classes are in session during the Fall and Spring semesters. During the Summer semester, and when the University is on an official break and/or no classes are in session, international students may work on campus in a student hourly position, up to, but not more than, 40 hours a week. Additional employment for international students is prohibited under [8 CFR 214.2 (f)(9)(i) and at 22 CFR 62.23 (g)(2)(iii)].

Please see the Student Employee Work Hours Policy for more information regarding student work hour regulation.

Scheduled work hours for all student employees (Work-Study and Student Hourly) must not conflict with students' class schedule or academic progress.

Student employees may work multiple jobs. In the case of work-study students, these jobs must be either multiple on-campus positions or multiple off-campus positions. A work-study student may NOT split their work-study award between one on-campus position and one off-campus position. The exception to this is when work-study students are employed at a single work-study job (either on or off-campus) and also employed at a single hourly job (either on or off-campus). In the case of work-study students working multiple jobs, please see the Overtime paragraph on page 7 for student, supervisor and department responsibilities, and the Student Employee Work Hours Policy.

Employers should make sure that students are not working during the times they are scheduled to be in class.

Undergraduate and Graduate work-study employees may NOT be paid with work-study funding, if hours are clocked during a student's class time. Auditors often review student time records to check for this type of situation. In cases when students report hours worked while they were scheduled to be in class, the employer should have documentation in the student's file regarding the extenuating circumstances that allowed them to work during this class time.

Students are expected to work the agreed upon hours, be punctual, and satisfy all reasonable requirements of the employer with regards to performance and behavior standards of the job. The student should notify the employer in advance if unable to work any given day. It is recommended that this expectation be clearly communicated to the student at the interview and upon hiring. Employers should give clear instructions on who to notify, and how to notify (phone, email), if the student is unable to work or is running late.

It is the responsibility of the employer to work with the student to come up with a reasonable schedule that meets the employer's needs along with the student's academic needs. There will be times during the semester (i.e. midterms and finals) where student's schedules may need to be adjusted. Planning ahead of time will help reduce the inconvenience to the employer.

Students are to be paid only for hours worked. Employers cannot pay a student for anticipated hours. Supervisors must review the time record for accuracy to verify that the student is reporting the correct time.

Please note: Work-Study Only. Any earnings over a student's work-study award will be paid at 100% by the employing department. The Student Employment Office will attempt to notify departments and employers when their students are running out of funds; however it is ultimately the students and supervisors responsibility to keep track of work-study earnings and awards throughout the semester. Furthermore, it is the sole responsibility of the student to be aware of possible funding and status changes, along with any work-study award reductions to their Financial Aid throughout a semester. It is also the sole responsibility of the student to immediately inform their supervisor of any changes which can affect their work-study award and employment eligibility.

Overtime:

Overtime must have prior approval by supervisor. Work-study students cannot be paid overtime (over 40 hours per week) out of work-study funding. Employers will be charged 100% (at 150% of the student's pay rate) for any overtime hours worked. Student overtime earnings should be reported on the time collection pages using a 'SOT' earnings type.

Student hourly employees are eligible for overtime. If employers have students that are working multiple jobs, it is the responsibility of the department(s) and of the employee to monitor the total hours worked in a given week across all jobs. If the total hours worked in the week are greater than forty hours (40) then the department where the employee works the 41st hour is required to pay the overtime.

Departments should work out ahead of time who will be responsible for paying the overtime or agree to share the overtime charges. Please make sure students are aware of the overtime issues when working in multiple departments. Employers need to discuss with student that overtime must be pre-approved or can be grounds for termination.

Breaks:

A student working a consecutive four-hour work period can be given a 15 minute break with pay. A student working a full eight-hour day can be given up to two 15 minute breaks with pay and a lunch break without pay. A student working more than five hours is entitled to a 30 minute lunch break without pay. It is recommended that students take this meal break of at least 30 minutes if they work more than 5 hours. Breaks should not be taken at the beginning or the end of the work period and are not cumulative. The breaks should be taken at times when they will not place an undue burden on the department. Employers and students can view the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment's regulations for breaks and meal periods at: <https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/cdle/breaks>

Over Payment:

The collection of unearned wages paid in error to an employee is required by State Fiscal Rules, Chapter 9: Payroll, Rule 9-4. For more information please visit the Fiscal Rules website at:

<https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/osc/fiscalrules>.

Whenever an overpayment of wages has occurred, the employing department must complete the Notice of Overpayment Adjustment form. For this form as well as more detailed information on overpayments to University employees, please see the Employee Services Procedures guide at:

<https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/business-partners-ppldrl/resources/es-procedures-guide/overpayment-wages>.

Jury Duty:

In accordance with the Code of Colorado Regulations, students who are called to serve for jury duty are entitled to compensation. Students are paid their actual hourly rate for any normally scheduled work that occurs during the first three days of jury duty served. Compensation for jury duty must be paid 100% out of departmental hourly funds. Therefore, if the student is normally paid work-study, the department will be required to pay 100% of the student's compensation for these three days. If the student receives any jury pay from the court, they are not required to turn in hours to the University to receive regular pay. Students must notify their supervisor immediately that they must attend jury duty and should provide supervisors with documentation from the court, indicating the dates that they served for jury duty. For more information regarding this policy, please visit: <https://www.cu.edu/employee-services/business-partners-ppldr/business-partner-resources/employee-services-procedure-87>

Pay Rate Regulation

Supervisors are responsible for setting the hourly pay rate of their student employees in accordance with the current Student Employment Job Class Descriptions, and the Student Employment Pay Matrix (both below). Student employees cannot be paid below the minimum wage standard, which is specified in the Student Employment Pay Matrix, and dictated by State and Federal regulation. Student employees must be paid at or above the State or Federal minimum wage, whichever is higher at any given time.

More information on the Colorado minimum wage is available on the Department of Labor and Employment website at: <http://www.colorado.gov/cs/Satellite/CDLE-LaborLaws/CDLE/1240336908932>

If a student is being paid a fixed fee for a project, the hours to complete the project must be taken into account when calculating the payment total to ensure the wages are at or above the minimum wage standard.

Students cannot be paid higher than the maximum pay for the Student Assistant VI level. When changing the student's pay rate, first determine if the new pay rate still coincides with the pay range associated with the student's job code/class. If the new rate still coincides with the range, enter new amount and approve the change. If the new rate falls outside of the current code/class, employers will need to make sure the student's job description has changed and the student's job code/class is updated within Position Data in HCM.

Article XVIII, Section 15, of the Colorado Constitution requires the Colorado minimum wage to be adjusted annually for inflation, as measured by the Consumer Price Index used for the State of Colorado.

Time Entry Regulation

Supervisors of students are responsible for facilitating time collection within their departments through the Departmental Payroll Liaison (PPL). The Student Employment Office is responsible for managing the time entry process for all Off-Campus Work-Study Employers (including students working in MSUD/CCD/AHEC/UCH/etc.).

Students must complete bi-weekly time records listing time in & time out for each day worked. The hours reported on these time records must then be entered onto HCM Time Collection Pages. The signed hard copy of the time record must be kept on file with the employing department for a minimum of 3 years (5 years recommended). Departments with contracts and grants are required to retain records for 3 years (5 years recommended) from submission of final expenditure reports on all contracts and grants. For work-study students, federal and state programs require departments to obtain the time record for 3 years (5 years recommended) from the end of the award year.

PLEASE NOTE: Students are to be paid only for hours worked. Employers cannot pay a student for anticipated hours. Supervisors must review the time record for accuracy to verify that the student is reporting the correct time. Supervisors and students CANNOT hold hours in anticipation of a work-study award. Students must be paid hourly, until the date work-study has been awarded.

Supervisors and students must adhere to the time collection deadlines and facilitate time collection with the department Payroll Liaison (PPL). Time Collection deadlines are available on the Employee Services Payroll Calendar and the Student Employment Office (SEO) Bi-Weekly Payroll Calendar, linked below:

Employee Services Payroll Calendar: Here

SEO Bi-Weekly Payroll Calendar: Here

Since students are not eligible/entitled to fringe benefits they cannot receive benefits in exchange for work such as retirement, vacation, sick leave, snow days, unemployment and/or paid holidays (Students are eligible for Jury Duty pay, please see page 5). To assist employers in managing student time records, we would like to suggest the following:

Managing Student Time Records:

- Keep time sheets or time cards (if using an automated system) in one location where only the supervisor has access to them. Student employees should be given access only when they sign in and out.
- Have the student sign/punch in and out on his/her time record on a daily basis (i.e. do not have him/her fill out the entire time record at the end of the pay period). This should eliminate any errors.
- If the student makes an error while filling out the time record and supervisors need to change the information on the time sheet, cross it out and legibly write next to the old information. Do not use white out to correct errors on the time sheet. Have the supervisor initial the changes.
- Make sure the student has a supervisor that is aware of and can verify the student's time in and time out. An appropriate person should be designated to sign off on the time record in the supervisor's absence (i.e. vacation or sick). Employers should notify student employee who this "backup" person will be for the department.
- Both the supervisor and the student must sign the time record. Supervisors cannot sign the student's time record for them. Students must sign to certify that "the hours and minutes shown herein are a complete and accurate record of time worked each day and for the reporting period."
- Under no circumstances should the time record be returned to the student after the supervisor has signed it.
- State Procedure P-3-35 states "Time worked must be recorded in 15 minute units (round to the nearest quarter hour). Example: if a student punches in at 7:11 employers should round the time to 7:15 and they left at 4:25 – round the time to 4:30. Using these rounded figures, the student worked 9.25 hours for the day.

15 minutes = .25 of an hour *30 minute = .50 of an hour *45 minutes = .75 of an hour

If your department discovers the reporting of fraudulent information, you must first conduct an internal audit. The student name should only be forwarded to the Student Employment Office, if it involves a work-study student employee. If fraudulent information on a student's timesheet is confirmed, this will be considered grounds for immediate termination.

Student Employee Termination

Students are “at will” employees; this means the hiring department can terminate a student at any time. Student employees may also be terminated for performance related or disciplinary reasons, such as:

- Lack of performance or attendance
- Falsifications of timesheet
- Releasing of restricted information
- Theft
- Unauthorized or fraudulent use of equipment and/or property
- Violation of University policies and procedures

It is recommended, if possible, that a reasonable (approximately two weeks) notice be given. Before terminating a student, we recommend:

Counseling:

The student should be informed of the unsatisfactory performance or behavior and given an opportunity to correct it. You should be specific about what you expect from the student. If the students think they need more training, arrange a training schedule.

Documentation:

Keep a record of all attempts to talk to or contact the student, and specifically what you have asked the student to do, in-order to correct the unsatisfactory performance/behavior. After two weeks, evaluate the student again, and document the results.

In addition to terminating a student for unsatisfactory performance, a student employee may be terminated for reasons of budget constraints, completion of project, lack of work, and other such valid reasons unrelated to job performance. The employer should give the student a two-week written notice that states the reason for termination.

If the student's performance continues to be unsatisfactory after counseling and a reasonable opportunity to improve, the student may be terminated. When possible, departments should provide a two-week written notice prior to terminating a student with cause, except in cases of flagrant, willful violation of University or Agency rules, or in cases where the student has been told in counseling attempts that the next occurrence of a behavior will result in termination.

At the time of termination, employers must immediately inform Employee Services of the student termination and request, within 6 hours, a hand drawn check must be processed for the hours worked by the terminated student. You can find the Hand-drawn Warrant Request form here. Please make sure that the student has completely filled out his/her time sheet, including signature, for the hours worked during the pay period at the time of termination.

We recommend that your department develop a termination policy and communicate it to your employees upon hiring. Some things you might want to consider when writing a policy:

- What are grounds for immediate termination (e.g. breach in confidentiality, theft, etc.)?
- What are performance issues that you will give students a period of time to correct?

Student Retirement Policy

Federal law requires Undergraduate student employees to be enrolled in a minimum of 6 credit hours, and Graduate student employees a minimum of 3 credit hours, for the term in which they are employed, to be exempt from the Colorado Student Retirement Plan. To comply with the Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1990, the following students are REQUIRED to enroll in the Student Retirement Plan:

Undergraduate Student Employees:

- Academic Year: Students enrolled in less than 6 credits for the academic year (Fall & Spring), will be subject to student retirement.
- Summer: Students enrolled in less than 6 credits for the summer (total credit hours of all summer terms), will be subject to student retirement.
- Student employees whose normal work schedules are 40 or more hours per week (across all jobs with the University) will be subject to student retirement, regardless of the number of credits in-which they are enrolled.

Graduate and Professional Student Employees:

- Academic Year: Students enrolled in less than 3 credit hours for the academic year (Fall & Spring), will be subject to student retirement.
- Summer: Students enrolled in less than 3 credits for the summer (total credit hours of all summer terms), will be subject to student retirement.
- Student employees whose normal work schedules are 40 or more hours per week (across all jobs with the University) will be subject to student retirement, regardless of the number of credits in-which they are enrolled.

Exemption - If the Graduate student employee is in the last academic term of a course of study and is enrolled in the number of credit hours needed to complete the degree requirements, the student will qualify for exemption from the Student Retirement Plan for that academic term, even if the student employee is enrolled in less than the number of hours stated above.

Exemption - Dissertation or thesis - a graduate student who have completed all the academic classes required for the advanced degree, and whose remaining enrollment consists of the dissertation or thesis, will be considered as a graduate student with half-time status for purposes of the Student Retirement Plan.

PLEASE NOTE: All student employees who are enrolled in high school, trade school, or any schools, other than the University of Colorado, are subject to the Student Retirement Plan.

As of January 1, 2011, students will no longer be frozen in time for retirement purposes. Students will be switched to retirement or no retirement based on their enrollment units during each bi-weekly payroll process. The payroll process will check the student's enrollment status and will update the student's "Empl Class", in HCM accordingly. To ensure that students are initially set up correctly in HCM for student retirement purposes, we recommend that departments determine students' enrollment status at the beginning of each semester.

Conflicts of Interest and Nepotism

Since 1972 it has been the Policy of the Board of Regents that: University administrators, faculty and staff shall not participate in institutional decisions involving direct benefits such as appointments, retentions, promotions, salaries, leaves of absence, or awards to members of their immediate families. The University-wide Administrative Policy Statement: "Nepotism in Employment" interprets this Regent Policy as follows:

The thrust of the Regent policy is that while there is no prohibition against relatives working in the same department or unit, an employee may not appoint, nor participate in the decision-making process to appoint, a relative to a position within the University. The decision on the appointment must be made by someone other than the relative. Once such an appointment has been made, subsequent decisions on the salary, promotion, and all perquisites and benefits of the employee must be made by someone other than the relative, even though the relative may be the supervisor to whom the employee reports.

Responsibilities of Student Workers

Student Employees Responsibilities and Rights

First and foremost, it is the sole responsibility of every student employee (work-study & hourly, on or off-campus) to read and understand both the Student Employment Policy and Student Employee Information and Policy sections of this handbook. If a student employee does not understand or has questions regarding any portion of these sections, please ask your supervisor or contact the Student Employment Office at: studentemployment@ucdenver.edu or 303.315.1842.

It is also the sole responsibility of each WORK-STUDY RECIPIENT to understand Financial Aid Policies, be aware of possible funding and status changes, along with any work-study award reductions throughout a semester. Furthermore, it is the sole responsibility of ALL STUDENT EMPLOYEES to immediately inform their supervisor of any changes which may affect their student employment eligibility. Students must provide a copy of their class registration (and proof of work-study award, if applicable) to their supervisor before the start of each semester, demonstrating enrollment eligibility.

PLEASE NOTE: Neglecting these responsibilities by any student employee (work-study & hourly, on or off-campus), may be considered grounds for termination.

It is also the sole responsibility of every student employee to: Notify their Supervisor, HR, and Employee Services, of any personal information changes (i.e. name changes, address changes etc.); Notify Employee Services of any changes to Direct Deposit information; Notify their Supervisor and University Risk Management of any work related injury within 4 days of an accident; Notify and report to their Supervisor and HR any incidences of sexual harassment.

Students are ‘at will’ employees; this means the hiring department can terminate a student at anytime. Student employees may also be terminated for performance related or disciplinary reasons, such as:

- Lack of performance or attendance
- Falsifications of timesheet
- Releasing of restricted information
- Theft
- Unauthorized or fraudulent use of equipment and/or property
- Violation of University policies and procedures

Holidays are not paid for student employees. Furthermore student employees are paid ONLY for time worked. Breaks should not be used to report late or leave early. It is recommended that students take a meal break of at least 30 minutes if they work more than 5 hours, or a 1 hour meal break if they work for more than 7.5 hours. Meal breaks are unpaid for student employees. Student Employees should not work more than 8 hours within a work day.

International students (depending on the country they are residents of), should visit the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus Human Resources (Lawrence Street Building) for information regarding tax exempt status, while working under a Student Employee classification.

Student Employees cannot be utilized as personal assistants, and should be completing duties as described within their job description only. If a student employee feels as though they were terminated unjustly, treated unprofessionally, or discriminated against by an employer, they may contact the Student Employment Office, to discuss the issue and their rights as student employees, at: studentemployment@ucdenver.edu or 303.315.1842

Gaining Student Employment

It is always the recommendation of the Student Employment Office to find work-study and student hourly positions within the department of a student’s major field of study and/or future career interest. This path is highly recommended for the following reasons: When moving from your collegiate career into the workforce, employers are not only looking for the degree you’ve obtained with the University of Colorado, but the experience you have gained in your chosen field. In fact, in most career fields, more employers now put greater emphasis on the experience an applicant has, than on the degree they’ve obtained. Please keep this in mind while pursuing a student employment position.

Students may work at any type of student position, in any department or office (on or off-campus), in-which they are interested, as long as they meet the Student Employment Eligibility section of this handbook. Student may find a wide range of open student positions on the Student Employment Job Board. To access these vacant positions, please visit the UCD Access Portal at:

<https://passport.ucdenver.edu/login.php> (first login, choose the “Students” tab, then scroll down to the “Student Employment” section, and locate the job search page).

If you are having trouble finding an open position, on or off-campus, please feel free to make an appointment with the Student Employment Office at: studentemployment@ucdenver.edu or 303.315.1842

Work-Study Waitlist

If a student is seeking work-study, but was not initially awarded work-study by the Financial Aid Office, a student may submit a Work-Study Request Form to be placed on the Work-Study Waitlist. This form DOES NOT guarantee work-study funding and will be arranged on a first come first serve basis. In addition, the Student Employment Office will not award work-study—to students on the Work-Study Waitlist—who do not have room in their Financial Aid budget.

However, if the student has indicated permission to reduce their loan amounts, to be replaced by work-study funding, the Student Employment Office will then act accordingly.

Students with high EFCs and/or, students who do not have Need Based Financial Aid, will be considered No Need Based Students. In the case of these students seeking work-study through the Work-Study Waitlist, the Student Employment Office will award No Need Work-Study as funding becomes available on a first come first serve basis.

If you believe yourself to be a No Need Based Student, and have further questions about No Need Work-Study, please contact the Student Employment Office at: studentemployment@ucdenver.edu or 303.315.1842

Work-Study Cancellation Policy

Please note that work-study is never guaranteed and may be reduced or cancelled at any point throughout any given semester. For students who do not earn any portion of their work-study award, the Student Employment Office will be cancelling work-study awards during the following time throughout the Fall and Spring semesters:

Fall Semester – October
Fall/Spring Transition – January
Spring Semester – March

In addition to the above cancellation dates, the following are also reasons work-study may be cancelled:

Additional grants or scholarship awarded to a student, after initial packaging, which causes an over-award.
SAP – Satisfactory Academic Progress.
Student not enrolled in at least 6 credit hours throughout the entirety of a semester.
Student withdraws from the University
Students who have graduated

Please contact the Student Employment Office at: studentemployment@ucdenver.edu if there are any questions regarding work-study cancellation policies.

Student Employment Paperwork

Once students have gained employment, they must complete and submit the University's hiring paperwork and background check (all of which are listed below), before employment may begin. For students working on-campus, hiring paperwork will be submitted to your supervisor and/or hiring authority upon its completion. In the case of off-campus work-study positions, students will complete and submit all hiring paperwork, IN PERSON, to the Student Employment Office located in Building AB1, Room 5105, on the Auraria Campus.

I-9 supporting documents will be submitted in-person to the appropriate hiring authority depending on the classification of the student employee as on-campus or off-campus. PLEASE NOTE: Due to federal I-9 regulations, student employment paperwork cannot be accepted via fax or email.

Any timesheet submitted late or not signed by the due date, will not be processed until the next pay cycle.

In the case of off-campus work-study employees, all signed and completed timesheets will be faxed or email to the Student Employment Office at 303.315.1835 or studentemployment@ucdenver.edu.

Student employees are to be paid only for hours worked, and may not include anticipated hours on a timesheet. In addition, student employees may not hold hours, in anticipation of a work-study award through the Financial Aid Office. If a student employee is found to be intentionally forging hours (hour not actually worked), this will be considered grounds for immediate termination.

State Procedure P-3-35 states “Time worked must be recorded in 15 minute units (round to the nearest quarter hour). Example: if a student punches in at 7:11 you should round the time to 7:15 and they left at 4:25 –round the time to 4:30. Using these rounded figures, the student worked 9.25 hours for the day.

15 minutes = .25 of an hour *30 minute = .50 of an hour *45 minutes = .75 of an hour

Time Entry Regulation

Supervisors of students are responsible for facilitating time collection within their departments through the Departmental Payroll Liaison (PPL). The Student Employment Office is responsible for managing the time entry process for all Off-Campus Work-Study Employers (including students working in MSCD/CCD/AHEC/UCH/etc. departments).

Students must complete bi-weekly time records listing time in & time out for each day worked. The hours reported on these time records must then be entered onto HCM Time Collection Pages. The signed hard copy of the time record must be kept on file with the employing department for a minimum of 3 years (5 years recommended). Departments with contracts and grants are required to retain records for 3 years (5 years recommended) from submission of final expenditure reports on all contracts and grants. For work-study students, federal and state programs require departments to obtain the time record for 3 years (5 years recommended) from the end of the award year. Request, Direct Deposit form, W-4 form, and update their address (if needed).

PLEASE NOTE: Students are to be paid only for hours worked. You cannot pay a student for anticipated hours. Supervisors must review the time record for accuracy to verify that the student is reporting the correct time. Supervisors and students CANNOT hold hours if they are waiting for a work-study award. Students must be paid hourly, until the date work-study has been awarded.

Supervisors and students must adhere to the time collection deadlines and facilitate time collection with the department Payroll Liaison (PPL). Time Collection deadlines are available on the Employee Services Payroll Calendar website.

Employers and students may also refer to the Student Employment Bi-Weekly Payroll Calendar for pay period beginning/end dates, student pay dates, along with work-study beginning/end dates for each semester.

Since students are not eligible/entitled to fringe benefits they cannot receive benefits in exchange for work such as retirement, vacation, sick leave, snow days, unemployment and/or paid holidays (Students are however eligible for Jury Duty pay, please see page 7). To assist you in managing student time records, we would like to suggest the following:

Managing Student Time Records:

- Keep time sheets or time cards (if using an automated system) in one location where only the supervisor has access to them. Student employees should be given access only when they sign in and out.
- Have the student sign/punch in and out on his/her time record on a daily basis (i.e. do not have him/her fill out the entire time record at the end of the pay period). This should eliminate any errors.
- If the student makes an error while filling out the time record and you need to change the information on the time sheet, cross it out and legibly write next to the old information. Do not use white out to correct errors on the time sheet. Have the supervisor initial the changes.
- Make sure the student has a supervisor that is aware of and can verify the student's time in and time out. An appropriate person should be designated to sign off on the time record in the supervisor's absence (i.e. vacation or sick). You should notify your student employee who this "backup" person will be for your department.
- Both the supervisor and the student must sign the time record. Supervisors cannot sign the student's time record for them. Students must sign to certify that "the hours and minutes shown herein are a complete and accurate record of time worked each day and for the reporting period."
- Under no circumstances should the time record be returned to the student after the supervisor has signed it.
- State Procedure P-3-35 states "Time worked must be recorded in 15 minute units (round to the nearest quarter hour). Example: if a student punches in at 7:11 you should round the time to 7:15 and they left at 4:25 –round the time to 4:30. Using these rounded figures, the student worked 9.25 hours for the day.

15 minutes = .25 of an hour *30 minute = .50 of an hour *45 minutes = .75 of an hour

If your department discovers the reporting of fraudulent information, you must first conduct an internal audit. The student name should only be forwarded to the Student Employment Office, if it involves a work-study student employee. If fraudulent information on a student's timesheet is confirmed, this will be considered grounds for immediate termination.

Summary of Work-Study Charges to Departments

Each employing department will be charged 25.5%, on top of and/or in addition to, a work-study employees earnings each month. The University will make these charges to an employing department's speedtype monthly. Please ensure that the work-study student employees Funding Distribution panel is setup with the correct speedtype, in-which the employing departments would like this charge to come out of.

PLEASE NOTE: The departmental speedtype(s) should account for 100% of the students funding (ensuring that multiple funding sources add up to 100%) in the Funding Distribution panel.

Student Employee Termination

Students are 'at will' employees; this means the hiring department can terminate a student at any time. Student employees may also be terminated for performance related or disciplinary reasons, such as:

- Lack of performance or attendance
- Falsifications of timesheet
- Releasing of restricted information
- Theft
- Unauthorized or fraudulent use of equipment and/or property
- Violation of University policies and procedures

It is recommended, if possible, that a reasonable (approximately two weeks) notice be given. Before terminating a student, we recommend:

Counseling:

The student should be informed of the unsatisfactory performance or behavior and given an opportunity to correct it. You should be specific about what you expect from the student. If the students think they need more training, arrange a training schedule.

Documentation:

Keep a record of all attempts to talk to or contact the student, and specifically what you have asked the student to do, in-order to correct the unsatisfactory performance/behavior. After two weeks, evaluate the student again, and document the results.

In addition to terminating a student for unsatisfactory performances, a student employee may be terminated for reasons of budget constraints, completion of project, lack of work, and other such valid reasons unrelated to job performance. The employer should give the student a two-week written notice that states the valid reason for termination.

If the student's performance continues to be unsatisfactory after counseling and a reasonable opportunity to improve, the student may be terminated. When possible, departments should provide a two-week written notice prior to terminating a student with cause, except in cases of flagrant, willful violation of University or Agency rules, or in cases where the student has been told in counseling attempts that the next occurrence of a behavior will result in termination.

At the time of termination, employers must immediately inform Employee Services of the student termination and request, within 6 hours, a hand drawn check must be processed for the hours worked by the terminated student. You can find the Hand-drawn Warrant Request form Here. Please make sure that the student has completely filled out his/her time sheet, including signature, for the hours worked during the pay period at the time of termination.

We recommend that your department develop a termination policy and communicate it to your employees upon hiring. Some things you might want to consider when writing a policy:

- What are grounds for immediate termination (e.g. breach in confidentiality, theft, etc.)?
- What are performance issues that you will give students a period of time to correct?

Off-Campus Employer Responsibilities

Including CCD, MSUD, AHEC, Etc.

General Employer Responsibilities

All off-campus employers must read, be familiar with, and abide by, the Student Employment Policies and the Off-Campus Employer Responsibilities sections of this handbook. All employers must ensure every student hired has read and understands the Student Employment Policies and Student Employee Information and Policy sections of this handbook.

It is the responsibility of the employer to work with a student and come up with a reasonable schedule that meets the employer's needs along with the student's academic needs. There will be times during the semester (i.e. midterms and finals) where student's schedules may need to be adjusted. Planning ahead of time will help reduce the inconvenience to employers.

All employers must ensure that all student employees complete the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus mandatory Skillport trainings listed below:

- CU: Discrimination and Harassment
- CU: Information Security and Privacy Awareness training

Please note, additional HR and interdepartmental trainings associated with the student position, which may include FERPA, HIPAA, Sexual Harassment, Discrimination, etc. may be required. If employers have questions regarding the specific trainings student employees should complete, please contact the Student Employment Office at: studentemployment@ucdenver.edu or 303-315-1842."

All employers and/or departments must maintain, and are responsible for keeping student employee personnel files on-site, and up-to-date. These personnel file should include copies of the following documentation for each student employee hired:

1. Copy of Personal Information Worksheet.
2. Copy of Emergency Contact Worksheet.
3. Copy of signed Letter of Offer.
4. Copy of student Job Description.
5. Copy of all student Class Schedules.
6. Copy of all signed Timesheets.
7. Any student Performance Evaluations.
8. Any student performance warnings.

The Student Employment Office will handle all off-campus student employment hiring paperwork, Human Resource and Payroll matters, along with time entry. The Student Employment Office will also provide copies of 1 & 2 (above) to off-campus employers.

PLEASE NOTE: Any earnings over a student's work-study award will be paid at 100% by the employing department. The Student Employment Office will ATTEMPT to notify employers when their students are running out of work-study funds; however it is ultimately the students and supervisors responsibility to keep track of work-study earnings and awards throughout the semester. Furthermore, it is the sole responsibility of the student to be aware of possible funding and status changes, along with any work-study award reductions to their Financial Aid throughout a semester. It is also the sole responsibility of the student to immediately inform their supervisor of any changes which can affect their work-study award and employment eligibility.

Hiring Work-Study Student Employees

Finding Student Employees:

To obtain a healthy pool of students from which to select, it is the recommendation of the Student Employment Office that employers develop and post a job announcement to the University of Colorado Denver | Anschutz Medical Campus Student Job Board Handshake. Employer must first create a login and profile to complete job postings. To do this, please visit the link below and register your department/organization.

<https://www.myinterfase.com/ucd/employer/>

After registering, employers can manage, delete or edit postings at any time by logging back in to Handshake.

Hiring Student Employees:

After the interviewing process has concluded and a student employee has been selected, the employers must direct the selected candidate to the Student Employment Office to obtain the proper hiring paperwork. The employer must collect proof of the student's Work-Study award, along with a copy of the student's class schedule to be in compliance with the Work Hour Regulation section of this Handbook (both provided by the student). If a student fails to provide this information in a timely manner, the employment opportunity may be revoked by the employer. If a student is unwilling to provide proof of work-study for privacy reasons, the employer may then contact the Student Employment Office to verify the award.

Work-Study Charges to Off-Campus Employers

Each Non-Family Literacy, off-campus employer is charged 25.5%, along with 2% for worker's compensation, which is on top of and/or in addition to, a work-study employee's earnings each month. The University will bill off-campus employers monthly, which should be paid within 30 days of receiving the University invoice. The following paragraph is a direct quote from the Off-Campus Work-Study Contract, paragraph IV, page 1:

The Agency agrees to reimburse the University for twenty-five and a half percent (25.5%) of the amount actually earned by each student. The University will pay Worker's Compensation premiums on the students employed hereunder, and the Agency shall, in addition to other sums due hereunder, pay the University an amount equal to two percent (2%) of the wages earned by each student to cover such premiums and the administration thereof. The aforementioned amounts will be billed (all CU campuses will be billed through PeopleSoft Finance) to the Agency on a monthly basis by the University and should be paid within thirty days of receipt. Agency accounts which become delinquent may result in an immediate cancellation of this agreement by the University and in the subsequent termination of all student employees. Agency may be responsible for 100% of student's salary if Agency allows students to work prior to University notification of eligibility by receipt of student's electronic timesheet.

The above percentage information does not apply to off-campus Family Literacy employers. However, the following statement does apply to Family Literacy employers; paragraph IV, page 1, of the Family Literacy Off-Campus Contract:

Agency may be responsible for 100% of student's salary if Agency allows students to work prior to University notification of eligibility by receipt of student's electronic timesheet.

Site Visits of Off-Campus Employers

To maintain a positive and educational off-campus work-study experience, along with confirming off-campus employers are abiding by University, State and Federal work-study standards, the Student Employment Coordinator will periodically make site visits to off-campus employers.

Site visits will be setup and scheduled by the Student Employment Office during the Fall or Spring semesters. A site visit will consist of a short meeting between the direct supervisor of off-campus student employees and the Student Employment Coordinator. The Coordinator will ask a series of questions, tour the areas in which student employee's work, and discuss any issues that arise. Student employees DO NOT need to be present during the site visit.

Each off-campus employer who is NOT visited during an academic year will receive an off-campus employer compliance survey via email. This survey is mandatory and will take about 10 to 15 minutes to complete. It will consist of about 10 to 14 questions, with questions ranging from student evaluations, to time collection methods. The survey is strictly for employers only and should not be given to student employees to complete.

If off-campus employers have any questions or concerns regarding site visits or the compliance survey, please contact the Student Employment Office at: 303.315.1842 or studentemployment@ucdenver.edu.

Student Employee Termination

Students are 'at will' employees; this means the hiring department can terminate a student at any time. Student employees may also be terminated for performance related or disciplinary reasons, such as:

- Lack of performance or attendance
- Falsifications of timesheet
- Releasing of restricted information
- Theft
- Unauthorized or fraudulent use of equipment and/or property
- Violation of University policies and procedures

It is recommended, if possible, that a reasonable (approximately two weeks) notice be given. Before terminating a student, we recommend:

Counseling:

The student should be informed of the unsatisfactory performance or behavior and given an opportunity to correct it. You should be specific about what you expect from the student. If the students think they need more training, arrange a training schedule.

Documentation:

Keep a record of all attempts to talk to or contact the student, and specifically what you have asked the student to do, in-order to correct the unsatisfactory performance/behavior. After two weeks, evaluate the student again, and document the results.

In addition to terminating a student for unsatisfactory performance, a student employee may be terminated for reasons of budget constraints, completion of project, lack of work, and other such valid reasons unrelated to job performance. The employer should give the student a two-week written notice that states the reason for termination.

If the student's performance continues to be unsatisfactory after counseling and a reasonable opportunity to improve, the student may be terminated. When possible, departments should provide a two-week written notice prior to terminating a student with cause, except in cases of flagrant, willful violation of University or Agency rules, or in cases where the student has been told in counseling attempts that the next occurrence of a behavior will result in termination.

At the time of termination, employers must immediately inform Employee Services of the student termination and request a hand drawn check for the hours worked by the terminated student. Please make sure that the student has completely filled out his/her time sheet, including signature, for the hours worked during the pay period at the time of termination.

We recommend that your department develop a termination policy and communicate it to your employees upon hiring.
Some things you might want to consider when writing a policy:

What are grounds for immediate termination (e.g. breach in confidentiality, theft, etc.)?

What are performance issues that you will give students a period of time to correct?

Pay Rate Regulation

Supervisors are responsible for setting the hourly pay rate of their student employees in accordance with the current Student Employment Job Class Descriptions, and the Student Employment Pay Matrix (both below). Student employees cannot be paid below the minimum wage standard, which is specified in the Student Employment Pay Matrix, and dictated by State and Federal regulation. Student employees must be paid at or above the State or Federal minimum wage, whichever is higher at any given time.

More information on the Colorado minimum wage is available on the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment website.

If a student is being paid a fixed fee for a project, the hours to complete the project must be taken into account when calculating the payment total to ensure the wages are at or above the minimum wage standard.

Students cannot be paid higher than the maximum pay for the Student Assistant VI level. When changing the student's pay rate, first determine if the new pay rate still coincides with the pay range associated with the student's job code/class. If the new rate still coincides with the range, enter new amount and approve the change. If the new rate falls outside of the current code/class, employers will need to make sure the student's job description has changed and the student's job code/class is updated within Position Data in HCM.
